

Italian connection

Casa Italia Gourmet Food & Wines was founded in 1993 and has grown to become a prominent wholesaler of exclusive Italian products.

"All of our products are of the highest quality and produced by reputable Italian companies," General Manager Robert d'Amato said.

"When we established Casa Italia Gourmet Food & Wines many years ago, our aim was to share with Australians the foods that we grew up with in Italy.

"Based on wholesome, homemade recipes, all of our products are sure to bring out a bit of Italian in anyone."

Casa Italia primarily wholesales directly to delicatessens, supermarkets, restaurants and cafés.

"The majority of our product range is imported into Australia through our exclusive sole distributorships with many popular Italian brands," Mr d'Amato said. "This is key to our success as we strive to bring the taste of Italy to Australia."

Casa Italia enjoys close ties with various Italian trade organisations, including the Italian Trade Commission and Italian Chamber of Commerce, ensuring open communication between the Italian food industry and Italian manufacturers that approach Casa Italia about importing and distributing their products in Australia.

Mussini Balsamico di Modena IGP 'Argento' (250ml) entered stores last May and is available in a wide range of delicatessens and supermarkets. It is produced in the region of Modena, which is known for its high calibre of aged balsamic vinegars, including DOP Tradizionale and 100-year-old Il Grande Vecchio.

Mussini Balsamico di Modena IGP 'Argento' is produced from 100 per cent Italian grapes, which creates a rich and complex flavour that's perfect for salad dressings, steak and fish. ♦
