Casa Italia: Another successful involvement at Fine Food Australia

Fine Food Australia 2013 was recently held at the Sydney Convention & Exhibition Centre from the 9-12th September - for the last time before it relocates in 2 years whilst renovations are under way.

Exhibiting at this event since 2003, Casa Italia Gourmet Food & Wines collaborated with Chef Paolo Gatto (from Gatto Matto Trattoria, located in Sydney's "little Italy"). Using his culinary expertise, Chef Paolo demonstrated a mix of modern and traditional Italian cuisine, often sharing recipe ideas and tips with visitors during the 4 days of the event.

As always, passion and excitement about food was in the air, and this was instrumental in making this another successful involvement for Casa Italia Gourmet Food & Wines.

"Customer feedback has been fantastic so far" says Casa Italia General Manager, Robert d'Amato. "It is always exciting to show our customers new and exciting products from Italy, unlike anything they are used to seeing. It shows that there is so much more that Italian food and cuisine has to offer".

With a selection of the product range on display at Fine Food Australia, visitors were able to see a great cross-section of the portfolio - in particular the products ranges from Pastificio Venturino, Mussini & Oliviero. It was these 3 ranges that Chef Paolo Gatto focused much of his degustation delights upon, to the pleasant delights of visitors who were lucky enough to sneak away some samples.

Casa Italia was also lucky enough to have World Pizza Champion, Danilo Pagano, from Italy, perform "pizza acrobatics" on the their stand on Thursday 12th September. The talented Danilo drew a strong crowd as he dazzled the many onlookers with his skills of spinning pizza dough unlike ever seen before.
