

Quality Italian sweet biscuits

Casa Italia Gourmet Food & Wines' Amari and La Superiore ranges include an assortment of sweet biscuits promoted as being an ideal accompaniment to coffee, tea or as an afternoon snack. Available in a range of flavours and varieties, the biscuits are 100 per cent Italian made.

Amari biscuits are crafted using a traditional recipe. Casa Italia says the range provides the perfect fusion of ingredients to create authentic Italian products.

The region of Campania is the home of La Superiore, which delivers an assortment of biscuits the manufacturer says has been born through its passion to capture the essence of Italian culture and its love for producing the finest quality of sweets. ♦

As featured in the August, 2014 edition of Retail World magazine (see page 43)

La Superiore
BISCOTTIFICIO • ITALIA

Amari products are made entirely using the "tradizionale" recipe, and are uniquely produced in the hillsides of Tuscany. The range has been crafted by two sisters to provide the perfect fusion of raw materials to create a selection of products an authentic way.

Amari
Italy

The La Superiore range delivers an assortment of sweet biscuits that are an ideal accompaniment to coffee or tea. Ranging from the decadent Baci Di Dama to a delicious Bruschettine Olive Oil, the range is perfect for all occasions.

Casa Italia Gourmet Food & Wines Pty Ltd

Tel: 1300 909 400

Email: sales@casaitalia.com.au

Online: www.casaitalia.com.au

CASA ITALIA
GOURMET FOOD & WINES