As featured in the March, 2015 edition of Delicious magazine (see page 40).

A company which was born in Mombercelli d'Asti is known for the production of the artisanal crumbly torrone and for its fine chocolate. The company is housed in a historic building in the heart of Asti. The various types of torrone produced by the D.Barbero company is perfect for all sweet lovers.

This typical Piedmontese crumbly type of torrone, is produced according to the old traditional recipe of the town of Asti and has recently received the Italian brand D.E.C.O., that is to say "Local Denomination of Origin".
